Sarah: It's St. Patrick's Day! People wear green to show their support for the holiday.

Tommy: I see! What else do people do on St. Patrick's Day?

Sarah: Well, they have parties, dance to traditional Irish music, and participate in parades. And sometimes, they even find a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow!

Tommy: A pot of gold? That sounds amazing!

Narrator: And it's said that if you catch a leprechaun on St. Patrick's Day, he'll give you three wishes.

Sarah: Let's try to catch a leprechaun and make some wishes!

(Tommy and Sarah start to look for a leprechaun)

Tommy: I think I see one!

Sarah: Where?

Tommy: Over there!

(They run towards the leprechaun)

Leprechaun: Hello, young ones! What brings you to me on this special day?

Tommy and Sarah: We want to catch you and make some wishes!

Leprechaun: Well, you have to catch me first!

(Tommy and Sarah start to chase the leprechaun)

Narrator: And with a little luck, they finally catch the leprechaun.

Leprechaun: Well done! You may make three wishes.

Tommy: I wish for a big bag of candy!

Sarah: I wish for a rainbow to appear in the sky!

Tommy: And I wish for a pot of gold at the end of that rainbow!

Narrator: And with a twinkle in his eye, the leprechaun grants their wishes.

(A rainbow appears in the sky and a pot of gold is at the end of it)

Tommy and Sarah: Thank you, Leprechaun!

Leprechaun: You're welcome, young ones. Happy St. Patrick's Day!

(Tommy and Sarah run to get their pot of gold)
